

NO. 5:12-CT-3157-FL

seeks to amend his complaint, he must file a motion for leave to file an amended complaint pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15. To the extent plaintiff seeks to include evidence to support his claim, he must do so in support or defense of a properly filed motion for summary judgment. Based upon the foregoing, plaintiff's motions to enter evidence are DENIED. As stated in the court's August 1, 2013, order plaintiff again is cautioned that unnecessary filings hinder rather than assist the court, and plaintiff is discouraged from engaging in such conduct.

In summary, plaintiff's motions to compel (DE 53, 60) are DENIED as premature, and plaintiff's motion to enter exhibit Z (DE 44) is DENIED as MOOT. Finally, plaintiff's motions for leave to enter evidence (DE 51, 54, 59, 64, 68) are DENIED.

SO ORDERED, this the 26th day of September, 2013.
